Review

"This is an outstanding book, since it combines basic syllabus material with advanced philological and exegetical scholarship. Its author displays a profound knowledge both of Early Christianity and of the Hellenistic-Roman world. A special asset consists of the numerous little-known examples of ancient letters which are presented in a most convenient and easily accessible way in this rich book."?Samuel Vollenweider, University of Zurich, Switzerland

"This splendid book is vintage Klauck. He offers a close reading of a wide range of ancient letters as well as brief discussion of ancient epistolary theory and of rhetoric. He strikes just the right balance between basic instruction and original insight."?Abraham J. Malherbe, Buckingham Professor Emeritus of New Testament Criticism and Interpretation, Yale Divinity School

"The ancient world?Jewish, Greek, Roman, and Christian?was through and through a culture of letter writing. Ancient Letters and the New Testament is a must for anyone seriously concerned to understand ancient epistolary communication."?Troels Engberg-Pedersen, University of Copenhagen
