CALLED TO SERVE BY KENNETH COX PDF

This book is about the amazing grace and mercy of God-and a man whose heart beats with compassion for sinners. As you read about the life of evangelist Kenneth Cox, you'll be amazed how God took his life's darkest moments and turned them into his most precious assets. A candid and fascinating autobiography, this is the story of a simple "Okie" from Oklahoma who bravely faced a lifetime of trials and heartaches: a serious childhood illness, a mother debilitated by a brain tumor, an abusive father, and the loss of a spouse and an infant son. With rare grace (and humor), he's dealt with everyone from angry drug dealers to a cigarette-smoking deacon, winning them over with his compassion and unconditional love.

Inspiring

By MsReno

Dr Cox is the most informative and interesting pastor that I have ever listened to and read about. Not only does he bring the Bible to life in a historical way, but in a caring and concerned way, delivers the core message that Jesus Christ is the only way to eternal life. He is an outstanding gift of light to all those who will lend an ear. Lord always bless his service!
