How to get from Here to There (and where to stop in between)

By A. P. Marsten

This book was one of the most important references my wife and I used on our passage from Seattle to Skagway. Not only did it give us ideas on where to go the next day, but where to hide in case the weather didn't cooperate. A must have reference for every boater cruising the Inside Passage.

It is a good guide. I bought one off Amazon from Goodwill ...

By Jeri R.

We recently lost our house to a fire. All our cruising books went with it. Taken off the boat for winter. We had this Douglass guide. Edition printed in 2001. It is a good guide. I bought one off Amazon from Goodwill (other buying options). I thought I was buying a current guide newer edition. This one is older 1995. This even has a page missing. I suggest they list which edition these are and not sell as good with missing pages. Will have to find a new edition now as much has been added. We live and cruise here in SE Alaska. I would not buy this unless you know how old it is. And would not buy from Goodwill again.
