Charming and Inspiring

By QueenMab

This book was given to me and when I opened it, it was like stepping back into another era, I was surprised to see how recently it was printed. I am crazy about this form of illustration and am always looking for old books in this style in second hand bookstores. What I love is that it gives me lists of books illustrated by each of these artists so it has opened up a whole new doorway to my ongoing bookhunt. It is a lovely book that has inspired me to dust of my sketchbooks and rediscover childhood as it ought to be.

CHARMING AND INTERESTING

By Gary D Zenker

There's something special about children's book illustrations. It's especially magical when you dig back into the past and find some of the artists who did the work in the 1930s and prior. The craftsmanship of the art brings one back to a time even if you never actually lived it.

The book does a nice job of giving you just enough history on the artist and offering chronological context to help you understand the artists' environment. In many cases, it makes you want to go seek out more on the artists and to see more samples of their works.

There are some artists I have wondered about that are not included, and that is to be expected. Given that the book is from England, it's not a surprise that the focus is on European artists. Neither of these facts takes away from what the book offers the reader.

A book that makes you want more. Now THAT'S a well-presented package!

WHAT A GREAT BOOK

By Sandy H.

I HAVE ALWAYS ENJOYED THE ILLUSTRATIONS IN "OLDER BOOKS" ESPECIALLY CHILDREN'S.I HAD NEVER TAKEN THE TIME TO NOTICE THE NAME OF THE ILLUSTRATOR, UNTIL JESSIE WILLCOX SMITH.AS I BEGAIN MY JOURNEY, I DISCOVERED THAT THE ILLUSTRATED BOOKS I ENJOYED THE MOST WERE PART OF A VERY SPEICAL ERA IN BOOK PUBLISHING "THE GOLDEN AGE".I BEGAN LOOKING FOR BOOKS THAT TOLD THE STORIES OF THE GREAT CHILDREN'S ILLUSTRATORS. THIS BOOK GETS A TRIPLE-A RATING.THE BACKGROUND OF EACH ILLUSTRATOR

AND LISTING OF THEIR WORK IS CONCISE.BUT THE BIG PLUS WAS A SAMPLING OF THEIR ILLUSTARTIONS.THE IMPACT EACH MADE WITHIN THE NEW INDUSTRY OF MASS PUBLISHING IS QUITE THOROUGH. I CAN'T TELL YOU HOW WONDERFUL IT NOW IS TO RECOGNIZE THEIR WORK. THIS IS A MUST BOOK. IT ADDS DEPTH TO WHAT WE SEE ON THE PAGES OF THE BOOKS WE ENJOY SO MUCH. I VERY MUCH CHERISH THIS BOOK FOR THE INSIGHTS TO A TIME GONE BY.
