Paris Tour Guide

By Pamela R. Fricke

I am a longtime lurker-reader of Linda Mathieu's blog. Her book definitely lives up to the title with lots of great new places to explore on my next trip to Paris, as well as her insights on the challenges of leading tours. It didn't reduce my reading pleasure but this Kindle book could have benefitted from better formatting.

Great book for paris travelers.

By E. Temple

I usually don't review books, preferring the sidelines, but in this case am compelled to point out that since the scathing review of this book (a rough draft version posted by a 3rd party) Linda has revised and had it re-posted and now, it can be appreciated for its content, not condemned on its form. This is a worthwhile and informative read, with a personal spin, and not just for the first time visitor to Paris. My family took a photo tour with Linda some years back and loved it. She's extremely knowledgeable and passionate about the city and its environs, and this is reflected in this book.

Very informative

Book is very informative, looking forward to finding some of the little hidden treasures, that tourist's might not find on their own.
