About the Author

For the past twenty years of my life I have striven to excel in a field I passionately love-marketing. From my days at the University of Maine pursuing my marketing degree until today my life has been marketing. My early experience in the profession dates back to 1990, when I joined a reputable company, Edison Brothers, based out of St Louis, Missouri. Now I have risen from an employee to a self employed entrepreneur who has created numerous companies for himself and others. My experience speaks for itself-through my marketing work, the books I've authored, and my consultancies.

An excellent book

By Omar

I really enjoyed reading it particularly that it sheds so much light on the idea of belonging and how we idealize the notion of belonging.
