You need a great bowling book this is the one

By Frederick Vallee

This book is about the best instructional book I ever read. The author went to great lengths to help us bowlers to understand how to improve our odds in being alert to what the pro bowler already know and to look for. This has found a place in my book library.

Well worth reading.

By Dollar Crow

The author makes you realize why your ball behaves differently than you think it should. She also shows you to adjust accordingly. The book was well written.
