My Go To Book for healing the injured female within
By Amazon Customer

this book is my go to staple to feed my female soul. if anyone can get it right and deep it is Clarissa. to me, she is like the female version of Joseph Campbell. she totally unfolds the female archetypal characters and souls. if you want a book with meat and bones that talks about the issues of the female character and her relationships with other women ... within her family ... who betray her or abuse her, abandon her or neglect her ... and you have had that happen to you and you need a healing through profound understanding ... then get this book, read it and reread it and digest every bit of hit because there is nothing but soul food in here! thank heaven, God and angels for Clarissa. she is a national jewel and anything she creates speaks to me and i think it will speak to you as well.

A friend once remarked to me that this book was a bible for women...and so it is.

By Will Partridge

Amazing truths, thought-provoking stories, and connections from deep archetypes to who and where we are now. I've found it to be inspiring, comforting and helpful at times when I've needed these things. And when I pick up the book and randomly open it, it always comes to a page and story of particular relevance for me at the current moment. After having the harcover for years, I recently bought the paperback to carry with me, and it's like carrying an old friend. Dr. Estes has done something truly remarkable with this book
